

TIME RECORDS

Employees are required to record time worked in the current payroll application. Employees' computer-generated time recording will need to be approved prior to submission to one's supervisor. The supervisor must approve payroll information prior to processing the Payroll. Exempt employees are required to record exception time such as vacation, furlough, and/or sick hours.