

Dalton State College
Application for Superior Out-of-State Student Classification for Tuition Purposes

Dalton State College has set aside a Superior Out-of-State Tuition Waiver for academically exceptional, non-resident students. Applicants wishing to apply for the waiver must complete this petition and return it and all transcripts to The Office of Enrollment Services by the date listed below. The recipient will be selected based on academic performance as follows: Beginning Freshman and College Transfer Students with less than thirty semester hours must have a minimum high school grade point average of a 3.0. College Transfer Students with thirty semester hours or more must have a minimum college grade point average of 3.0. To retain the Superior Out-of State Tuition Waiver, students must maintain a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA each term of enrollment at DSC. Waivers are limited and are awarded on a first come, first serve basis.
