

YES. Sign me up!

2015 INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK SCHEDULE

Dalton State College will celebrate the annual International Education Week (IEW) between November 16 and 20, 2015. International Education Week (IEW) is designed to showcase the significant contribution that international education makes in preparing students for the global world and to support the college's effort to internationalize teaching and learning. It is sponsored by the Center for International Education (CIE), Dalton International Club (DIC) and African Student Association (ASA).

MAIN EVENTS

Monday, Nov. 16–22 “Discover the World: a Photo Contest,” an International Photo Contest, All photos will be exhibited on facebook page:

<https://www.facebook.com/DSCInternationalPhoto>

Study abroad returnees, international students or students who traveled recently to a foreign county can submit their photos taken during their study abroad or travel abroad. Please cast your vote on the facebook page and click “like” on your favorite photos. Wining photos will receive an award.

Monday, Nov. 16

“Discover the World: Dubai and Omani Coast,” a Brown Bag Lunch Session, 12:30 pm–1:30 pm. Place: LIA 310. Participants will receive a free T-shirt.

Dubai, iconic for its skyscrapers and high-rise buildings, has emerged as a global city and business hub of the Middle East. Dr. Jack Waskey, Professor of Social Science, who visited Dubai and United Arabic Emirate three times will share his travel experience in Dubai and its adjacent cities and coastal area.

“Discover the World: Japan,” 5:00pm–6:30pm. Place: Eddie Miller Room, Pope. Taste delicious Japanese food and learn Japanese culinary culture.

Ms. Haruna Tatsukawa, Japan Outreach Coordinator at Japan America Society of Georgia, will present traditional Japanese dietary culture Washoku. Washoku is a social practice based on a set of skills, knowledge, practice and traditions related to the production, processing, preparation and consumption of food. She will also teach students how to make Japanese Sushi.

Tuesday, Nov. 17

“Discover the World: France,” a Brown Bag Lunch Session, 12:30pm–1:30pm. Place: MEM 109. Participants will receive a free T-shirt.

Dr. Wesley K. Davis, Professor of English, loves to travel. He went China and Russia in previous two summers. This summer he made his way to France. He will present photos and videos about his recent trip to Paris, the City of Lights, and Normandy, famous for the “D-Day.”

“Voice of Cultures: OpenMic,” 6 pm-8 pm. Place: stage area, second floor, Pope Student Center.

Come to share your unique culture, and express your culture through speech, singing, dancing or any other artistic form. Open to all students, faculty and staff members. This event is aimed at promoting intercultural dialogue and bringing communities together through culture expression.

Wednesday, Nov. 18 “Discover the World: Taste of Russia,” 3 pm-5 pm. Place: stage area, Upper Level of the Pope Student Center.

Please join us during the cold autumn afternoon try out some of our warm Russian dishes and a small Cyrillic alphabet lesson. Provided to you by the Dalton State International Club.

“Going Global: Stories of Abroad—An International Symposium,” 5 pm–7 pm. Place, Eddie Miller Room, Pope Student Center. Pizza will be served. Participants will receive a free T-shirt.

Several study abroad returnees and faculty members will share their recent study abroad experiences in various study abroad programs, and Dr. Celeste Humphrey and Dr. Jean Johnson will share their abroad experience to Greece.

Thursday, Nov. 19

“Study Abroad 101,” a special CIE workshop, 3:15pm–4:30pm. Place: LIA 310. Participants will receive a free T-shirt.

This workshop is designed to show you how to utilize the resources in the Center for International Education Office, explaining differences in types of programs, offering an opportunity to ask questions, and providing scholarship and funding information.

“International Dinner and Movie Night,” 5:00pm–7:00pm. Place: Brown 105.

Come to sample international food, and watch the award winning movie The Last Emperor. The Last Emperor is a 1987 biographical film about the life of Puyi, the last Emperor of China, whose autobiography was the basis for the screenplay written by Mark Peploe and Bernardo Bertolucci. Independently produced by Jeremy Thomas, it was directed by Bertolucci and released in 1987 by Columbia Pictures. At the 60th Academy Awards, the film won nine Oscars.

Friday, Nov. 20

“Gilman Scholarship Workshop:” 10:00am–1:00pm. Place: PEOPLE’S HALL 105. Free pizza and T-shirt will be provided.

This workshop is designed to help students who plan on participating in one of the summer or semester-long study abroad programs to get Gilman International Scholarship. Dr. Baogang Guo, Dr. Cecile Anne de Rocher and Dr. Jennifer M Randall will be the main presenters for the event.