Join us for an exciting study abroad to Brussels, Belgium, home of the European Union. This course, focused on the history and future of the European Union, will include visits to the European Commission, NATO, and other points of interest, as well as the opportunity to experience European culture in Brussels, Bruges, and other popular tourist destinations.

When: Maymester, 2020
Course: MNGT 4800
Course Description: Trade Protectionism, Brexit, and the Future of the European Union
Cost: TBD
Instructor: Professor Keith Carruthers