

Peer Financial Fitness Coach Job Description

Peer Financial Fitness Coaches are student workers who engage peers in financial wellness education and planning to prepare students with a solid foundation for a lifetime of responsible financial decision-making.

Required Qualifications

- Overall GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Positive DSC instructor recommendations
- Good academic and student conduct standing
- Completion of at least one semester at Dalton State

Preferred Qualifications

Majoring in one of the following areas:

- Accounting
- Finance and Applied Economics
- Logistics and Supply Chain Management
- Management
- Management Information Systems
- Marketing

Responsibilities Associated with Peer Financial Fitness Coaches

- Meet with students in both group and individual settings to deliver personal finance knowledge, building a solid foundation for financial decision-making.
- Plan and implement financial literacy events and workshops across campus
- Promote financial literacy in a variety of ways across campus.
- Attend peer educator and financial fitness training as well as continued subsequent monthly trainings for further professional/personal development
- Attend peer education socials, team-bonding, and volunteer opportunities
- Complete necessary personnel paperwork and record working hours through OneUSG
- Model appropriate professional attitudes and behaviors toward others

Time Commitment: Students may work 19.5 hours or less each week

Associated Benefits:

- Flexible Hours
- Earn $7.25/hour ($9.25/hr beginning in July)
- Build Your Resume
- Connect with Fellow Roadrunners
- Potential for Earning Letters of Recommendation for Grad School and Future Employment