

Peer Money Mentor Job Description

Peer Money Mentors are student workers who engage peers in financial wellness education and planning to prepare students with a solid foundation for a lifetime of responsible financial decision-making.

Required Qualifications

- Overall GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Positive DSC instructor recommendations
- Good academic and student conduct standing
- Completion of at least one semester at Dalton State

Preferred Qualifications

Majoring in one of the following areas:

- Accounting
- Finance and Applied Economics
- Logistics and Supply Chain Management
- Management
- Management Information Systems
- Marketing

Responsibilities Associated with Peer Money Mentors

- € Meet with students in both group and individual settings to deliver personal finance knowledge, building a solid foundation for financial decision-making.
- € Plan and implement financial literacy events and workshops across campus
- € Promote financial literacy in a variety of ways across campus.
- € Attend peer money mentor training as well as continued subsequent monthly trainings for further professional/personal development
- € Complete necessary personnel paperwork and record working hours through OneUSG
- € Model appropriate professional attitudes and behaviors toward others

Time Commitment: Students may work 19.5 hours or less each week