Study Abroad in Lima, Peru and Machu Picchu
February 26 to March 8 - Earn 3 College Credit Hours

WHY SHOULD YOU GO?

- It is summer in Peru – the best time to go.
- Experience the Pacific Ocean Beach in Lima
- Climb Machu Picchu and check off a bucket list item. Once you see the ruins of the 15th-century Incan site, you’ll understand the importance of this UNESCO World Heritage Site

- Lima is an easy non-stop, direct Delta flight from Atlanta. It is in the same time zone – no jet lag.
- Short 10-day international experience – gain the global perspective while minimizing disruption to your work/school/family schedule
- Stay in three-star hotels – not dorms or hostels – with free Wi-Fi and full breakfast included
- Enjoy Peruvian cuisine and have a taste of Inca Kola while immersing in a new culture

TRIP INCLUDES:

$ All airfare and airport transfers - Airfare from Lima to Atlanta and return as well as airfare from Lima to Cuzco and return
$ All local transportation in Lima and train to Machu Picchu from ancient city of Cuzco. All hotel accommodations included: double occupancy.
$ Lima tours
$ Business plant tours and education site visits
$ Luncheon sessions with CU students and faculty. Learn from these locals and make contacts for your future international career and travels
$ All breakfasts, some lunches and dinners, and hospitality included

- Hybrid format with pre-travel orientation and post travel presentations
- South America is a growing and important trading partner – gain this valuable experience for your degree and resume
- Earn 3-hours of credit: Choose one.
  ✓ BUSA 2016 The Environment of Business
  ✓ MNGT 4800 Special Topics – Doing Business in Peru
- Approved for the DSC “International Endorsement” certification – differentiate yourself on your transcript and your resume with this important distinction

Cost: ~$3,500 10-day program, plus regular course tuition (may vary)
HOPE and international scholarships may apply.