

Course Progression for
Minor in International Business
2020-2021

Give yourself an edge locally and globally with a minor in international business. This minor will provide you with an understanding of problems and problem-solving methods that transcend international boundaries. Proficiency in a foreign language and participating in a study abroad can better your understanding of the social, political, and cultural context of the global marketplace.

Junior	Area/Level	Fall Semester	Cr.	JR	Area/Level	Spring Semester	Cr.
BUSA 3351	Upper Core	International Business (pre-req: ECON 2105 or 2106)	3	ECON 3110	Upper Core	International Trade (SU; pre-req: ECON 2105, ECON 2106)	3
		Total	3			Total	3
Senior	Area/Level	Fall Semester	Cr.	SR	Area/Level	Spring Semester	Cr.
Elective	Upper/ Lower	Elective Course *	3	Elective	Upper/ Lower	Elective Course *	3
Elective	Upper/ Lower	Elective Course *	3
		Total	6			Total	3

*Select three of the following classes:

- COMM 4425 Intercultural Communications (F; pre-req: COMM 1110; COMM 2000)
- ECON 3107 International Trade Organizations (occasionally; pre-req: ECON 2105, 2106)
- MNGT 4612 Managing Effective Teams (F, S; pre-req: MNGT 3051)
- MNGT 4800 Special Topics in Management (occasionally; pre-req: MNGT 3051)
- POLS 2401 International Relations (occasionally; pre-req: POLS 1101)
- PSYC 3450 Cross-Cultural Psychology (pre-req: PSYC 1101, ENGL 1102, both with C or better)
- Any FREN courses
- Any GRMN courses
- Any SPAN courses

F-Fall; S-Spring; SU-Summer