

CANVASSING AND SOLICITING

The Division of Fiscal Affairs shall be the only body empowered to conduct or approve business activity on the campus of Dalton State College. Business activity shall include any undertaking of an individual or group which encompasses the production, sale, distribution (by sale or gifts) of products or services. The sale and distribution of products and services includes any method of marketing by way of direct selling or indirect selling, including the use of posters, flyers, handouts, or other promotional literature. Such activities shall be subject to the provisions of this policy.

Distribution of non-commercial written material such as pamphlets, handbills, circulars, newspapers, magazines and other materials which are protected by the First Amendment may be given away or sold on a person-to-person basis in open areas at least 20 feet from outside of buildings and other closed structures on the campus. No stand, table or booth shall be used in distribution without permission from the Director of Student Life. "Drop (bulk) delivery" or unattended distribution is not permitted and will be discarded if found. Distribution shall be made from a designated location and sales person are not allowed to walk around campus distributing written material.

There shall be no advertisement or other public statement in which Dalton State College's name is used in connection with any non-College organization, business, or person in any manner or medium that implies that the College supports, approves, or endorses any product, service, interest, position, or ideology of that organization, business, or person. The Office of Vice President for Fiscal Affairs may require that approved non-College events or activities include in their advertisements the following disclaimer: "This event/activity is not sponsored by Dalton State College."