

What is Dalton State's Day 1 Ready Program?

Dalton State's Day 1 Ready program ensures that you have access to required course materials on the first day of class and at the lowest price possible.

How does Day 1 Ready benefit me?

- You'll save money! Day 1 Ready is the most cost-effective solution for students.
- You'll have easy, immediate access to the correct course materials before the first day of class.

How do I know what materials for each course are included in Day 1 Ready?

Courses that are included in Day 1 Ready will show under the Day 1 Ready Provided Course Materials on the student dashboard.

How/when do I pay for Day 1 Ready material?

Charges will appear on your student account before the start of your classes. However, participation is optional, and you may choose to opt out of Day 1 Ready. Please see the section titled "How do I opt out of Day 1 Ready" for instructions on opting out.

How much will I be charged for the material?

The price varies upon the materials your instructor uses, but Day 1 Ready materials are less expensive than purchasing directly from the publisher or other vendors. You can view the price of each material in your GeorgiaVIEW course under the "Day 1 Ready" link.

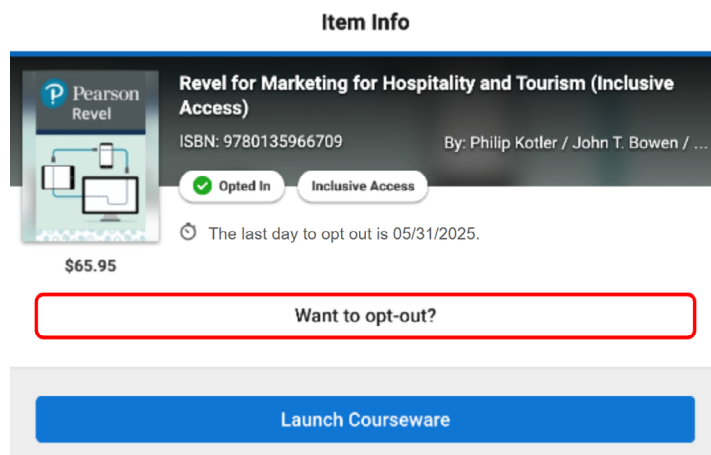

How do I access the Day 1 Ready material?

To access the material, you will need to log in to GeorgiaVIEW, access your course, and locate the "Day 1 Ready" link in the resources tab under the navigation bar. To avoid access issues or being prompted for further payment, please make sure you use the access materials through your GeorgiaVIEW course.

If you are unable to locate the link to your materials, please contact your instructor. Physical course materials will be shipped to campus for residential students. All non-residential students will receive an email to verify their preferred shipping address through the daltonstate.ecampus.com website on the Day 1 Ready Student Dashboard.

How do I opt out of Day 1 Ready?

If you do not wish to participate in Day 1 Ready, you must opt out by August 21st. For digital and physical course materials, you can opt out at any time during the opt-out window.

You can opt out by accessing the “Day 1 Ready” link found in your GeorgiaVIEW course. Your student account will be automatically refunded for digital products according to Dalton State’s refund policy. If physical course materials were already shipped for your course, you are responsible for returning the book within 7 days of receiving the book. Once your return is confirmed, your student account will be refunded accordingly.

If you are unable to locate the “Want to opt-out?” option, please email aadigital@ecampus.com and include your course information.

Please note that if you opt out of the program, you will no longer have access to the required course materials. You will be expected to purchase materials elsewhere.

Can I opt back into Day 1 Ready if I change my mind?

You can easily opt back into Day 1 Ready Program up to August 21st. If you need to opt back in, navigate to the “Day 1 Ready” link found in your GeorgiaVIEW course and select the “Opt-In” option.

What happens if I drop a Day 1 Ready Course?

If you drop a course that was participating in Day 1 Ready, your student account will be automatically refunded for digital products according to Dalton State’s refund policy. If physical course materials were already shipped for your course, you are responsible for returning the book within 7 days of dropping the class or receiving the book. Once your return is confirmed, your student account will be refunded accordingly. Please visit daltonstate.ecampus.com and head to the Day 1 Ready Student Dashboard for a return shipping label.
